

The Gibbes Museum of Art

Sculptor John Dreyfuss is in town to give a special tour of his exhibit "John Dreyfuss: Sculptor," Friday at the Gibbes Museum of Art, 135 Meeting St. The exhibit features 13 large works of animals and marine forms as well as his well-known baseball players. As part of the Friday Feast: Art for Lunch lecture series, Dreyfuss will discuss the methods he utilizes to create his bronze masterpieces. The tour begins at 12:30

HOT This Weekend

Friday

Charleston Ballet Theatre

Roses and chocolates aren't the only presents to give on Valentine's Day. The Charleston Ballet Theatre offers another kind of treat Friday and Saturday with "The Valentine's Party." Four sensual and love-inspiring ballets will be performed by members of the Charleston Ballet Theatre Company. The performances will be "Romeo and Juliet," "Leitmotif," "The Meeting" and "Bolero." The Charleston Ballet Theatre is located at 477 King St. Tickets are $25 per person or $45 couples.

Performances begin at 8 p.m. both evenings. Complimentary champagne and desserts will be served with admission. Call 723-7334 ext. 114 for more information and to order tickets

Charleston Symphony Orchestra

Lara Webber, the new Charleston Symphony Orchestra Assistant Conductor, leads the CSO in a special Valentine's Day concert Friday at 8 p.m. in the Sottile